"Master EK's Birthday Celebrations"

Discourse 2 by Master Kumar Garu on 11th of August 2011, at Vuda Children Theatre, Vizag.

I already spoke for about 90 min. in the morning. So I wanted others to speak for sometime in the evening before I speak. Sometimes Master EK used to hand over the responsibility of giving a speech and left to give some medicine to someone. Master EK used to like others to speak as well and not only him. So he used to do like that sometimes. So today we have some members who spent their life with Master EK sharing their experiences with us. So the programme for the evening was designed by someone but we should see it as the divine plan.

This should be a regular practice for us. This is the path given to us by Master EK. We should see the divine in all. We should see the divine in all that is happening as well. There should be no difference in your vision if you like some incident or do not like it. All that is happening is divine. We should not question, Why?

If we give some advice to someone and that helped him a lot, we should not feel it is our greatness. If we give some advice and it is not followed and something wrong happens, we should not feel that because he did not follow our advice, it went wrong. Anything may happen because it all the will of divine. So see it as all divine.

We cannot know about Master EK completely. That is why we keep talking about him. This is similar to the life of Lord Krishna. Many people did not understand him and there is no one who understood him completely. That is why there is lot of discussion on the life of Lord Krishna and even today people do not understand his actions. Even the mantrams given by Master CVV are like that. Master CVV gave his mantrams in English because we can understand a little but never completely. So we keep enquiring. The world always keeps enquiring into what is not understood completely.

Master EK wrote in his diary as the words of his Master "There is no one equivalent to you in writing books at present on this earth." So that is the greatness of the Master EK's works. A discourse is different from a book. A discourse is to suit the audience who are present to hear that discourse. It varies from time to time and place to place. But a book is for all times present and future. So a book is always greater than a discourse. All the books of grand Masters reveal themselves to the reader to the extent of his orientation.

So make a habit of reading some book by Master everyday a few pages. Do not think you read all the books. Read them again and again. They reveal more and more secrets to you. Everyone should read the Mandra Scripture by Master EK. It gives sublime topics in depth but in short. The book may be having very less pages but the matter in it is large and secretly embedded.

If you read the book "Music of the Soul", you will understand how you move to subtler planes and work with different bodies in the night. Life as Giri Sarma ends but life as Djwala Khula is forever as you see in that book. So there is a two layered life. Who are you when you get into sleep? Do you know? You should not think you are sleeping in the body. No one remains in the body during sleep. You move in different planes. To prove that only, we get dreams. We see something happening in another plane as our dream. So we should realise all this and strive for the higher. Master EK showed us the way.

It is possible to get access to the higher planes by making a proper use of the physical body given to us. The divine body develops only when you are in the physical body. You cannot do anything without this physical body. This is what Master CVV has promised to us and Master EK showed it to us. Master CVV made his work happen through Master EK. Master EK even worked for the hierarchy.

So we can attain immortality only through the human body. It is not possible for animals. Grand Masters have been working on this planet to help the human beings attain immortality. Then comes the beings becoming divine. That is the purpose of this creation coming again and again.

Just going on speaking of Yoga and Master CVV is no use. What practice did you do? What we should do is already given to us. We should simply follow it. This human life is a great opportunity given to us and we should utilize this opportunity. If we just tell Master EK is a great Yogi, nothing good happens to us. We should do what he did to become a Yogi.

We should develop the divine body which is eternal before death befalls us. This cannot be done in the last minute before death. It is a life long process. If you have to get good marks in the exams, you should study the whole year. If you just study before the exam and then fear that you will pass or not will not help us pass the exam.

Master Jesus said "The White Robe". What is that white robe? Is it wearing white pant and white shirt? No! It is the diamond body which he spoke of. Yoga is to develop that diamond body. If we just keep on working to earn something which would diminish with this life, we are ignorant. We should strive for something that we can carry for lives together. Just because it was told to us softly, we should not take it lightly.

So that is what we should do and that is the message for us today.

-Swasthi.
